3 STATEMENTS RE ADDITIONAL FEES

5 In order to assist the Court in understanding the 6 detail and urgency of the services rendered by the ancillary
7 executor, the special administratrix and the attorneys for 8 the ancillary executor, in connection with the requests for 9 fees set forth below, petitioner points out the following:

10 Decedent was a world-famous motion picture actress.
11 She died suddenly and unexpectedly. At the time of her 12 death, she was in the process of remodeling a house at 13 12305 5th Helena Drive, Los Angeles, California, which she 14 had recently acquired. There was a substantial trust deed
15 encumbrance on the property. There was no cash available in 16 California. There was not sufficient cash available at her
17 domicile in New York to meet all of her obligations. There
18 were 35 creditors' claims filed in the ancillary administra-
19 tion in California alone. There were mobs of curiosity
20 seekers who came to the house, many of whom sought to buy
21 or remove curios and memorabilia. There was no family member 22 who could supply any assistance in the supervision of the 23 decedent's affairs or in taking over any of her responsi-
24 bilities.

25 It is against this background that the requests for fees
26 in this estate must be viewed.

3 A. EXTRAORDINARY SERVICES OF ANCILLARY EXECUTOR

4
5 The ancillary executor advised and consulted with 6 respect to all the matters set forth in the statement regard-
7 ing extraordinary attorneys' fees set forth in the 8 connection, further, said attorneys consulted with the 9 ancillary executor with respect to all decisions throughout
10 the entire period of almost fourteen years that this estate
11 has been in the process of administration. The ancillary 12 executor made four trips to California during said period of 13 time to supervise the handling of decedent's affairs in this 14 state.

15
16 Without limiting the generality of the foregoing,
17 the ancillary executor's extraordinary services with respect
18 to the administration specifically included: (1) advice,
19 consultation and decision-making with respect to the sale of 20 the real and personal property, as set forth above in the Petition
21 to which this Exhibit is attached; (2) assistance in determina-
22 tion of all matters relative to the California Inheritance Tax
23 Affidavit, including location of witnesses and procuring
24 their affidavits as to decedent's intention with regard to her
25 residence in California; and (3) consultation, review, fact-26 finding and decision-making with respect to the claims and 27 litigation in respect of the California fiduciary income tax

2 liability of the estate more particularly described in 3 Section C of this Exhibit III.

4
5 Petitioner estimates that his said extraordinary
6 services, over the period of almost fourteen years, 1945-1959,
7 more than one hundred forty (140) hours.

3 C. EXTRAORDINARY SERVICES OF GANG, TYRE &
4 BROWN, ATTORNEYS FOR ANCILLARY EXECUTOR

5
6 1. Extraordinary services in connection with

7 the preservation of assets:

8 Upon the death of decedent, petitioner's attorneys

9 immediately examined decedent's property; cooperated in

10 supplying information in connection with the decedent's estate;

11 handled conferences with the press and media with reference

12 to the decedent and her affairs; negotiated and supervised

13 the disposition of decedent's pet dog; arranged for continuing

14 housekeeping services during the period immediately following

15 decedent's death and for secretarial services to be rendered

16 replying to the thousands of letters (literally) received fol-

17 lowing decedent's death; arranged to have private detectives

18 guard decedent's home day and night; arranged for the bank

19 which held the encumbrance on the property to advance funds

20 and take no steps to declare a default until such time as

21 moneys could be provided through a sale of the property; and

22 arranged for the Special Administratrix to be appointed so

23 that any loss or waste to the estate could be minimized.

24 Petitioner's attorneys allege that they expended

25 more than 25 hours in connection with the above services. All

26 of which were of an emergency nature.

3 2. Sale of Real Property:

4 After the appointment of the ancillary executor,
5 petitioner's said attorneys supervised the sale of 6 home and some of the personal property. The sale
7 involved the preparation and publication of a Notice
8 of Real and Personal Property As a Unit for Private Sale,
9 preparation of a bid form with respect to the property, copies
10 of which were circulated among a number of real estate broker-
11 age houses; conferences with Mrs. Melson, who was assisted 12 showing the premises to prospective purchasers; negotiations
13 with the ultimate bidder to obtain the best possible purchase
14 price; preparation of Return of Sale of Real and Personal
15 Property as a Unit; attendance at the court hearing thereon;
16 preparation of the Order Confirming Sale and the Executor's
17 Deed, and following through with respect to all of the details
18 of the escrow until the transaction was finally complete.

19 Petitioner's attorneys estimate that they expended
20 not less than twenty (20) hours in connection with the foregoing.

21 3. Disposition of furniture and furnishings

22 Since there were no special provisions made for 23 the furniture and furnishings of the decedent and since it
24 was believed that many of them would have a substantial
25 value, either intrinsically or because of association with 26 the decedent, it was necessary to specifically inventory and
